SMART Retirement & Beyond Seminar Series

Join us for SMART Retirement & Beyond, a retirement planning seminar series exclusively for Massachusetts State Employees brought to you by State Treasurer Timothy P. Cahill's Financial Education Division and the Massachusetts State Board of Retirement. This seminar is designed to provide you with the information and tools needed to help achieve financial security and comfort in retirement. This winter, a representative from the Social Security Administration will be joining the formal portion of the seminar to discuss unique circumstances that Massachusetts State Employees need to be aware of when planning for retirement. A Group Insurance Commission representative is also expected to attend.

Seminars are conveniently scheduled in the evening at locations across Massachusetts. Registration is required. Space is limited, so don't wait! Register today at www.mass.gov/treasury/financialled.htm.

January 31, 2008 - 5:00-6:30 - The State House, Boston, MA (Gardner Auditorium)

All other winter seminars will be from 6:00-7:30 p.m.

February 7, 2008 - Fitchburg State College, Fitchburg, MA

March 13, 2008 - Middlesex Community College, Bedford, MA

March 20, 2008 - North Shore Community College, Danvers, MA

April 17, 2008 - Bristol Community College, Fall River, MA

If you would like to learn more about the retirement process, please register online at www.mass.gov/treasury & click on financial education for Smart Retirement & Beyond registration information. You can also call the Financial Education Department at the Treasurer's office at 617-367-6900 to register. Additional locations will be added later in the year throughout Massachusetts. If you cannot attend one of these seminars and would like one on one retirement counseling, stop by our offices in Boston and Springfield. Walk-in appointments are always welcome. General information about retirement can be found on our website at www.mass.gov/treasury/srb.htm
